EEO & AA

This company serves clients from approximately 100 offices across the United States, and is a leading provider of financially focused business services to mid-sized companies.

The financial industry has always been subject to its share of regulation, including those mandated by the FFIEC, Sarbanes-Oxley legislation, the Bank Secrecy Act and Anti-Money Laundering legislation.

Over the last several years, regulatory agencies have implemented risk-focused examinations to evaluate financial institutions' safety and soundness. Examinations also assess areas such as internal controls, financial condition and compliance with applicable laws and regulations. An institution's most vulnerable areas receive the greatest scrutiny.

This company utilizes risk-based compliance programs and questionnaires to provide a sound risk assessment strategy. Our risk-based approach, developed through years of experience, is designed to identify and qualify the vulnerabilities our clients face. Working together, we develop plans to protect our clients against financial and regulatory risks. We know that our success depends upon the strength of our consultants. An environment sound in regulatory compliance exists through the input of experienced resources, abreast of the latest regulatory requirements.
